CHAMPAGNE

This small 'house' in Chigny-les-Roses produces superb, rich Champagne. Often called the 'mini Krug'. No excuses are made regarding the prices, knowing that to make high quality Champagne is not a cheap exercise.

Gardet Cuvée Tradition Brut	£23.95
Classical style, made from 95% Pinot Noir & Meunier and 10% Chardonnay, giving a fresh, yet crisp wine with great length
Gardet Brut Reserve	£25.95
This fine wine produced from 2/3 Pinots Noir & Meunier and 1/3 Chardonnay, a 1/4 being aged in wood. A delicately rich wine to tease the senses.
Gardet Brut Rosé	£29.95
The same blend as the Brut Tradition with 15% of AOC Champagne red wine added. The pale pink offers a wonderful medley of aromas and flavours to enjoy.

SPARKLING WINES

Pure' Prosecco	£8.99
Very stylish and fresh, with that essential crisp bite of green apples. The perfect way to start a party.
Sandford Estate Brut, Victoria, Australia	£9.25
A very stylish 'fizz' made from 75% Chardonnay & 25% Pinot Noir in the Murray River area. The whole experience is great.
Rosato Spumante, Castello 4357, Treviso	£10.50
Previously this would be called Pink Prosecco, now outlawed, so if you find it it is illegal! Lovely aromas and flavours of summer berries with a clean finish.
Crémant de Bourgogne, Domaine Stephane Aladame	£14.50
We would rather drink this than cheap Champagne. A very stylish and elegant wine, balanced and clean.

WHITE WINES

FRANCE:

LOIRE VALLEY

Sauvignon Blanc 2010, VdP du Val de Loire, Vignerons de Valançay	£7.75
In our normal fashion we suggest this wine as a pretty good alternative to Sancerre. Sure it has less complexity, but the final taste is very decent.
Muscadet Sèvre et Maine 'sur lie' 2010, Château du Coing de St. Fiacre	£8.95
Proper Muscadet with a richer style. No wonder this wine received a silver medal in London
Sauvignon de Touraine 2010, Domaine des Corbillieres, Oisly	£9.60
French Loire Sauvignon in a modern style. Fresh aromatic flavours of goosberry and white peach, continues onto the palate. Very stylish.
Sancerre 2010, Domaine des Brosses	£14.25
We have tasted a number of Sancerres recently and the Nicholas Girard's wine wins every time. With six parcels of vines this gives the wines added nuances.
Pouilly Fumé 2010, Domaine de Bel Air	£14.45
A superbly crafted wine from the small vineyards of the Mauroy family. The wine is allowed to develop its own expressions through delicate handling.

BURGUNDY

Bourgogne Aligoté 2009, Domaine Perraud	£10.85
A lively, crisp wine with citrus fruit aromas, continuing to the medium bodied palate with hints of peaches and pears
Macon Solutré 2009/10, Maison Auvigüe	£11.95
A stunning wine from the heart of the Maconnais produced by wine of the best winemakers in the region
Chablis 2009, Daniel Dampt	£13.95
The wines from this estate show all the pedigree one expects. Excellent fruit, concentrated mineral traces and a long finish

RHONE VALLEY

Le Villasse 2010, Côtes du Rhone	£7.99
We have always had a fondness to the white wines of the Rhone and this new wine offers a clean dry style of wine without too high an acidity
Château La Tour de Béraud 2010, Costieres de Nimes	£8.75
What a delight! This lovely aromatic, yet dry wine has everything to remind one of the warm of the South of France
Château Montfaucon, Viognier 2008, Vin de Pays d'Oc	£8.95
Whilst not an AC wine, being a single variety, this Viognier has bags of quality to compete with Condrieu. Miss it at your peril.

FRENCH REGIONAL WINES ~ White

Richelieu Colombard/Ugni Blanc, IGP Comté Tolosan	£5.95
With the lovely floral notes of Colombard and the crisp acidity of the Ugni Blanc you have a lovely easy drinking 'everyday' wine
Domaine de Laguille 2008, Côtes de Gascogne	£6.45
A delightful easy drinking everyday wine. A clever blend of Colombard, Sauvignon, Ugni Blanc and Gros Mensang giving freshness with balance fruit and acidity
Les Vignes de l'Eglise Vermentino 2010, IGP Pays d'Oc	£6.90
Soft and fruity with a clean taste and balanced finish. Just a perfect easy drinking wine. Voted on of the top IGP white wines in the UK
Le Charme Sauvignon Blanc, Côtes de Gascogne	£7.25
Whilst not from New Zealand, the punch that this wine produces is remarkable and compares very well with much higher priced wines.
Baron de Badassiere Picpoul de Pinet 2010, Coteaux de Languedoc	£7.95
This award winning wine is a perfect example of Picpoul. Fresh, clean with a hint of the sea. Just wonderful with fish, especially oysters.
Domaine La Croix Gratiot Rousanne 2010, IGP Pays d'Oc	£8.95
Simply wonderful. The Rousanne grape gives a fresh, yet full flavoured wine with hints of tropical fruits. The top White IGP wine at London Wine Trade Fair, 2011.
Le Canon de Maréchal 2010, Domaine Cazes, Côtes du Roussillon	£9.75
This organic and biodynamic vineyard offers this stunning dry, yet fruity wine from the warm climate of Roussillon. It is a great discovery. Organic & Biodynamic

ALSACE

Pinot Blanc 'Klevner' 2010, Cave de Hunawihr	£9.50
A lovely introduction to the lovely wines of Alsace. Floral aromas and flavours of white peaches to the medium body with a clean lengthy finish
Gewurztraminer Reserve 2009, Cave de Hunawihr	£11.60
A stylish, fresh, fruity and spicy wine, that is the classical style, but in a modern style.

GERMANY
Villa Wolf Riesling Dry 2009, Pfalz	£8.70
The wines of the Pfalz are fuller, yet elegance is also here. Come and try this Riesling to discover what Germany has kept secret from most of us for years!
Dr Loosen Riesling Estate 2009, Bernkastel, Mosel	£8.99
Perfect example of fine Mosel with the elegant, yet racy style taken from the slatey soils. A wonderful aperitif wine or just gentle sipped in the warmth of the garden
Karl Heinz Johner Rivaner 2009, Kaiserstuhl	£9.99
The Rivaner grape of the Baden region producing a wonderfully aromatic wine, rounded and balanced to the palate making it suitable with starters and light meat dishes
Dönnhoff Riesling Dry 2010	£13.95
Helmut Donnhoff, the master in the Nahe. The concentration and balance of the aromas and flavours is amazing. A truly great wine
ITALY
'Pure' Grillo 2010, Sicily	£6.00
A new wine to us and one we feel will make many friends. Crisp, and fruity. Much better than most 'big stores' Pinot Grigios et al.
Pinot Grigio Terre degli Osci IGT 2010, Carlo Damiani	£6.95
Our Pinot Grigio continues to maintain an excellent quality to price ratio. The fruit is ripe, so the wine has suitable body and length.
Verdicchio di Matelica 'Terra di Valbona' 2010, Cantina Belisario	£7.75
A wine that seems to have lost some of its following and that is a shame, because this is a very rewarding soft, rounded wine with attractive aromas and flavours.
Salento Bianco 2010, Lamadoro, Puglia	£7.85
The blending of local grape, Verdeca and Sauvignon produces a vibrant fruity wine with quite a full body, which gives this wine a joyful individuality
Fiano/Greco 2010, A.Mano, Puglia	£7.99
If you want a fresh and floral wine, look no further. Coupled with a very clean crisp finish this makes a very pleasant change to the norm.
Soave Classico Superiore 2009, Monteforte, Veneto	£8.20
Good Soave is a delight. You'll find the essential aromas of almonds and the well-bodied dry fruity style from this Gold Medal wine.
Gavi de Gavi, Vigneti Lugarara 2010, La Giustiniana, Veneto	£15.45
Pale golden in colour with aromas of almonds and green apples. A delicate, graceful palate with a lovely finish
AUSTRALIA
Cranswick Chardonnay/Colombard 2009/10, Riverina	£7.80
Lively tropical fruit aromas with a hint of muskiness. The palate is of ripe, yet crisp fruit. A lovely aperitif wine, yet with correct acidity for poultry and light curries.
Pitch Fork 'unwooded' Chardonnay 2010, Chalk Hill, McLaren Vale	£8.25
This continues to be an excellent example of Aussie Chardonnay in the 'new' style, without any oak, Rich in flavour, but totally balanced with clean, fresh finish.
Cranswick Estate Pinot Grigio 2010, Barossa	£9.30
The grapes picked in the cool of the night allowing for great expressions of floral aromas and a fresh, clean palate of apple and pear flavours.
Tate Semillon/Sauvignon 2011, Franklin Tate Estates, Margaret River	£10.45
We have been looking for a wine like this for some time. Gentle, yet floral nose, good depth of ripe to palate with the Sauvignon giving a crisp fresh finish
NEW ZEALAND
Paua Bay Sauvignon Blanc 2010, Marlborough	£8.45
A stylish wine crafted by Alan McCorkindale. The balance of the fresh, floral aromas and ripe crisp fruit to the palate provides the correct style and finish.
Boreham Wood Sauvignon Blanc 2010, Awatere Valley, Marlborough	£9.95
This small property in the south of Marlborough continues to impress with well-structured wines. Fuller than the Paua Bay, more discreet than Tindall
Tindall Sauvignon Blanc 2010, Wairau Valley, Marlborough	£7.60 (50cl)
Classic Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc in the 'fuller' style. Strong gooseberry aromas and a rich array of flavours to the palate. Outstanding as always!
Boreham Wood Pinot Gris 2010, Awatere Valley, Marlborough	£10.45
Shows the perfect varietal style. Fresh & fruity with a balance between the fruit and acidity. A perfect aperitif wine, but also delightful with light meats.
SOUTH AFRICA

Baron de Badassière Carignan 2010, IGP Pays d'Oc	£7.45
The Carignan grape is beginning to be taken seriously again. When cared for correctly it produces a rich, yet elegant full flavoured wine.
Domaine Mon Mourel, Old Vine 100% Carignan 2002 VdP Hérault	£7.60
One of our little oddities. Still tasting really well, although we would advise decanting the wine, as it is not filtered or 'fined'. Rich and full of spicy fruit.
Domaine Pins des Marguerites 2005, St Chinian	£7.95
Bags of natural 'terroir' for a wine made from grapes of the schist soil of this region. Pungent aromas, fruity, bitter/sweet flavours.
Mas de la Seranne, Cuvée 'Les Griottes' 2006, Coteaux du Languedoc	£8.50
Now tasting very nicely. Rich fruity aromas with hints of the wild 'garrigue' landscape. The palate is richly round with a pleasing 'bite' to finish
Le Canon du Maréchal 2010, Cotes du Roussillon	£9.75
Situated in the Rivesaltes area of Roussillon, best known for sweet wines, they also produce some lovely early drinking wines. Organic & Biodynamic
Château Capion 2008, Coteaux de Languedoc	£11.95
Quite simply a wonderful wine. A blend of Cabernet, Merlot & Syrah giving great depth and subtlty. The finish seems to be endless
St Chinian, Domaine La Madura Grand Vin 2000	£13.95
This wine has an air of sophistication not normally to be found in the Midi. Perhaps it is the winemaker's experience at Chateau Lynch Bages, in Bordeaux?
Château de Chambert 2008, Cahors	£15.95
Set high on the ridge south of Puy l'Eveque. This wonderful property produces very stylish wines with a generous palate and long finish. Organic

SPAIN

Pleno Tempranillo 2008/09, Navarra, Bodegas Viana	£6.20
A despairate label, but the quality of the wine for the price is stunning. One of our favourite everyday tipples.
Viña Palaciega Joven Rioja 2009	£7.30
Young fruity Rioja from a new producer to us. The wine is fresh and lively with a medium body.
Vina Palaciega Crianza Rioja 2007	£8.45
Very stylish and balanced. The fruit is ripe and generous with the correct hints of oak, essential for a Crianza wine.
Rioja Alta, L5 de Logiñon 2005, Bodega Bretón Logiñon	£15.45
A deep, sophisticated & quality wine. The depth and complexity is wonderful. If you seek "exceptional" then stop right here and buy!

ITALY

Alpha Zeta Corvina 2010, Veneto	£6.60
The corvina grape given a modern 'workover'. Pleasing, soft berry aromas and a gentle rounded fruity palate.
Primo Merlot/Sangiovese 2009/10, Ortona	£6.80
A blend, when the great grape of Chianti meets one of the great grapes of Bordeaux. The result is a lively medium bodied fruity wine with a pleasing dry finish.
Primativo 2008, A Mano, Puglia	£7.95
Modern style Primativo with bags of ripe fruit both to the nose and mouth. A generous and pleasing wine.
Montepulciano d'Abruzzo 2010, Gran Sasso	£8.30
So often rather aggressive, however this is the exception with good ripe fruit being used and carefully handled to produce a stylish wine.
Salice Salentino 2010, Masseria Pietrosa, Puglia	£8.95
Another discovery from Puglia. A deep and concentrated nose of ripe berry fruit. The palate is full, rounded and very elegant with an excellent finish
Primo Scuro 2010, Cantina Mesa, Sardinia	£10.50

Chianti Classico Riserva 2007, Da Vinci	£13.45
There is something seductive about good Chianti. It has an unique style, not heavy, yet dominant. Fruity, yet crisp and dry. This has it all!

AUSTRALIA

Aldridge Estate, Abbots Peak Shiraz/Merlot 2010, South Eastern Australia	£7.65
With the bottom end of Aussie wines offering poor value, this is our starting point. Good fruit and pleasing aromas, translate to a rich, medium bodied wine.
Cranswick Lakefield Shiraz/Cabernet 2009/10, Barossa Valley	£7.80
This full and fruity wine with the traditional fullness of the Shiraz grape is pure Aussie, but with a little extra
Pitch Fork' Shiraz 2010, Chalk Hill, McLaren Vale	£8.45
This rich Shiraz is delightfully balanced as we have come to expect from Chalk Hill Estate.
Willunga 100 Shiraz/Viognier 2007, Adelaide Hills	£9.25
Very stylish and very Australian. Powerful ripe aromas and a direct, vibrant fruity attack to the palate.
Campbell's Shiraz/Durif 2008, Rutherglen	£10.99
The clever blending of two of Rutherglen's primary varieties gives a generous wine with plums and black berry fruits coupled with the spicy tones of the Durif
Clapis Moonvine 2007, McLaren Vale	£11.40
A bio-dynamic wine of pure class. The almost equal blending of Shiraz, Cabernet and Merlot gives a wine full in both aromas and flavours that last forever
Innocent Bystander Pinot Noir 2010, Yarra Valley	£12.00
The elegance of this wine starts with the clean cherry notes to the nose, through to the medium bodied flavours to the palate

NEW ZEALAND

Paua Bay Pinot Noir 2009, Marlborough	£10.50
Excellent value for the quality. Nothing has been spared to create a stylish wine at a reasonable price with that lovely cherry flavours to the palate.

SOUTH AFRICA

Drakensberg Cinsault/Cabernet 2010, Paarl	£6.45

Klippenkop Pinotage 2009/10, Robertson, Western Cape	£7.30
A carefully produced wine with some oak aging to soften the tannins and maintain a flexibility to the wine. An excellent example of this native grape variety
Bon Courage Cabernet/Shiraz 2009, Robertson	£9.25
Bags of 'punch' here, yet also a degree of elegance. The Shiraz giving the weight and the Cabernet the style to make one realise the beauty of the wine.
Edgebaston 'The Berry Box' 2009, Stellenbosch	£10.25
A red of variety from the Finlayson's. Mainly Cabernets Sauvignon & Franc + Shiraz and three other varieties. The concept is a fruit driven wine of elegance

CHILE

Kintu Merlot 2010, Maule Valley	£5.95
Chilean entry point Merlot with a very easy style, yet correctly balanced without any aggression or false flavouring.
Turi Carmenere 2009/10, Central Valley	£6.45
The discovery grape of Chile. Best described as a spicy Merlot, giving it a more defined taste with a peppery finish.
Villarrica Cabernet Sauvignon 2010, Maule Valley	£6.80
Simply a really good value and stylish Cabernet Sauvignon for vineyards about 100 kilometres south of Santiago. Fruity, but with balanced tannins
Casas del Bosques Reserva Cabernet Sauvignon 2010, Rapel Valley	£8.95
The next stage up for Cabernet Sauvignon and careful use of oak barrels. The elegance found at this level justifies the extra cost and rewards to drinker!
Casas del Bosque Gran Reserva Pinot Noir 2009	£12.50
This award winning wine shows that high quality wines of great elegance can now be found in Chile.

ARGENTINA

Las Manitos Shiraz/Malbec 2010, Mendoza	£6.25
Outstanding value. Fruity, but not 'jammy', so easy to drink on its own, but has enough structure to accompany good red meat dishes.
Las Manitos Pinot Noir 2009, Mendoza	£6.60
This is as good an inexpensive Pinot Noir as we have found. Filler and fruitier than French Burgundy and we would advise against comparisons. Just drink and enjoy
Sol de Mayo Cabernet Sauvignon 2008, Mendoza	£7.30
We have been looking for a cabernet from Argentina at a sensible price for some while, so delighted to offer this delightful cassis drien wine.
Finca Los Primos Malbec 2010	£7.95
We still have a little of the excellent 2010 vintage Malbec left. It has the classic style with plenty of rich fruit, yet with a satisfying dryness and balance
Colonia Las Liebres Mendoza Bonarda 2010, Lujan de Cuyo	£8.25
A lighter style to the Malbec and with hints of Italy and cherries. He vineyards to the south of Mendoza benefit from a higher altitude to give greater expression.
Famiglia Bianchi Malbec 2006, San Rafael	£10.95
We haven't neglected the Bianchi family. Instead moving up their range to this wonderful Malbec from the more southerly town of San Rafael

FORTIFIED WINES

Campbell's Rutherglen Muscat, Australia (37.5cl bottles)	£11.25
Whilst this wonderful wine is a huge 'hit' around Christmas is fully understood from the moment of the first sip.
Martinez Late Bottled Vintage 2005 Port	£14.25
A lovely elegant after-dinner wine with the richness expected from a good pedigree.
